4. Quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Economic and Social Council

(a) Deferred quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Council

(b) Review of quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Council

In accordance with the arrangements for consultation with non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Council that were approved by the Council in its resolution 1996/31, such organizations are required to submit, every fourth year, a report on their activities as regards the support they have given to the work of the United Nations.

The Committee will consider quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations on their activities deferred from previous sessions of the Committee held in 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006. The Committee will also consider quadrennial reports submitted by organizations on their activities during the periods 1999-2002 and 2000-2003.

Documentation

Quadrennial reports for the period 2000-2004 submitted through the Secretary-General pursuant to Economic and Social Council resolution 1996/31 (E/C.2/2007/_ and Add.___)

Compilation of quadrennial reports submitted by non-governmental organizations in general and special consultative status with the Economic and Social Council deferred from previous sessions held in 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2006 (E/C.2/2007/CRP._)

5. Strengthening of the Non-Governmental Organizations Section of the Secretariat

In view of the expansion of the functions and responsibilities of the Non-Governmental Organizations Section of the Secretariat to meet the demand of the growing number of applications for consultative status, as well as the demands of a larger and more active non-governmental organizations community, the Committee decided, at its 2004 regular and resumed sessions, that the strengthening of the Section should continue to be a priority during its 2007 session, and reaffirmed its strong support to the ongoing process of strengthening the Section, including the "paperless" Committee initiative.

6. Review of the methods of work of the Committee: implementation of Council resolution 1996/31, including the process of accreditation of representatives of non-governmental organizations, and Council decision 1995/304

(a) Process of accreditation of representatives of non-governmental organizations

The Committee will continue to consider the issue of the accreditation of representatives of non-governmental organizations and their participation in the work of the United Nations.

(b) Consideration of issues on the agenda of the informal working group

At its 2000 session, the Committee established an informal working group, open to all interested members of the Committee, to review its methods of work, including accreditation issues, procedures, coordination with the secretariat of the Commission on Human Rights, enhancement of the non-governmental organizations information process and security issues. At its 2004 session, the Committee reviewed a number of issues that have been placed on the agenda of the informal working group, and decided that the group continue its work. The Secretariat will report to the Committee on the subject.

(c) Other related matters

(i) Non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Council that have merged with other non-governmental organizations and wish to maintain their consultative status under a new name;

(ii) Non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Council that wish to withdraw their consultative status.

7. Implementation of Economic and Social Council decision 2001/295

In its decision 2001/295, the Council, recalling its decision 1996/302, decided that the non-governmental organizations on the roster of the Commission on Sustainable Development (see Council decision 1993/220) should apply for consultative status with the Council as would any other organization, as outlined in its resolution 1996/31. Those applications would be considered as expeditiously as possible under an agenda item of the Committee.

8. Consideration of special reports/complaints by member States

Documentation

Note by the Secretary-General containing a special report (E/C.2/2007/_)

9. General voluntary trust fund in support of the United Nations Non-Governmental Organizations Informal Regional Network

In its decision 2002/225, the Council established the general voluntary trust fund, and requested the Non-Governmental Organizations Section to identify and obtain the necessary financial, human and technical resources needed to carry out, in partnership with non-governmental organizations, Governments and other interested stakeholders, the development projects envisaged in the future framework of the United Nations Non-Governmental Organizations Informal Regional Network.
